ABSTRACT

This collection of bibliographies in 57 subject areas was prepared by subject specialist librarians for the District of Columbia Library Association's New Reference Book Roundup 1975. The selections represent the participants' top choices from reference works published since 1970 and important new editions of earlier works. Listings are alphabetical within subject areas, and each listing gives author, title, publisher, place of publication, data of publication, number of pages, and purchase price, and call number. (EMH)

* Documents acquired by ERIC include many informal unpublished *
* materials not available from other sources. ERIC makes every effort * * to obtain the best copy available. Nevertheless, items of marginal *
* reproducibility are often encountered and this affects the quality * * of the microfiche and hardcopy reproductions ERIC makes available *
* via the ERIC Document Reproduction Service (EDRS). EDRS is not * * responsible for the quality of the original document. Reproductions * * supplied by EDRS are the best that can be made from the original. *

INTRODUCTION

On May 28, 1975 over forty reference specialists from public, Federal, special and National libraries in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area convened to display and discuss their top choices from the spectrum of contemporary reference works. The bibliographies that follow were prepared by the participants in the New Reference Book Roundup 1975 to serve as a record of the works they selected for this event. For the most part, the citations represent works published since 1970 and important new editions of earlier works. As the personal selections of the Reference Roundup participants, the listed works do not represent any particular endorsement on the part of the compilers' organizations.

The bibliographic information is stated here as it was supplied by the participants; a minimum of editing was done. It was not surprising to find that some titles were selected by more than one subject specialist. Furthermore, the General Reference list includes some titles which could logically have been listed under various other subject headings, but which were included there in part to enhance comprehensiveness and round out coverage. The call number for each entry represents the call number assigned to the work in the library of the specialist who compiled the list.

I wish to express my gratitude to the forty or so librarians who volunteered their time to select and share with colleagues their choices of significant recent reference works. Also deserving of acknowledgement are the contributions of my fellow organizers (and proofreaders): Frances Reynolds, Elizabeth Jenkins-Joffe, and Dottie Pollet. Their energy, ideas, advice and hard work contributed in great measure toward making the Reference Roundup a reality. To those mentioned, and to the many others who assisted in this project, I offer sincere thanks.

Robert Zich
Chairman, Reference Roundtable
